

Sue Rendel

DEDICATED TO ACHIEVING OUTSTANDING RESULTS!

Most of Sue's working life has been spent in assisting people achieve their financial dreams; initially as a financial advisor and personal development coach and latterly as a highly skilled and dedicated real estate professional.

"I am passionate about people" says Sue, "and love selling. Real estate gives me the opportunity to meet people and help them achieve their goals, two of the things I love to do most."

"I want to provide outstanding service and exceed clients' expectations".

In the year that Sue has been at Phoenix, that certainly seems to have been the case. Her strong communication, negotiating and creative marketing skills have won her many new friends and given her a high level of success.

Sue's motto is "See it, Believe it, Achieve it".

For Sue, success is a 'SOLD' sticker and a happy client. She is well worth a call when you make your next real estate move!
